Confessed Burglary

(From Page One) the boy's story, was Wallace Vinal, who is now under observation at the State Hospital in Bangor.

It developed according to the confession, that the men had made a break at the same store the previous week, obtaining two hunting knives, two jackknives, a flashlight, a box of batteries and four watches.

The absence of these articles had not been noted by the owner. From their ill-gotten gains the young men bought a car in Bangor for $90, swapping it later for another which has since found its way to the junk heap.

LaBlanc is already in jail awaiting the action of the Grand Jury in connection with the burglary at a Camden garage and Walter Tolman's filling station.

Stage Show At Waldo

Famous "Black Buds of '42" Will Be In Waldoboro October 30

The management of the Waldo Theatre in Waldoboro has announced the booking of the road-show "Black Buds of 1942"—a big all-colored revue, with some 25 performers in the cast.

This show, to be presented by special arrangement one day only, Thursday, Oct. 30, features James Skelton, one of the most famous colored Baritone of the present day. Mr. Skelton returned from Europe at the beginning of war after making a world tour with Lew Leslie's Black Birds. While in London he played a command performance before King Edward, now the Duke of Windsor. Mr. Skelton was also featured at Connies Inn, The Cotton Club, and many other outstanding engagements. He is known to all his fans and admirers as Old Man River himself. His repertoire of songs covers a wide range, and it is a common occurrence for patrons of the theatre to call out the names of the songs they desire to hear Mr. Skelton sing.

"Black Buds of 1942" was recently shown in Bath, Me., and of Mr. Skelton the Bath Daily Times stated, "His rendition of 'Old Man River' nearly brought down the house."

In addition the stage revue at the Waldo Theatre features a band—Phil Edmunds and His Boys—with not only the latest and hot swing tunes from Harlem, but also the soothing melodies of the South.

There will be dancing, singing, comedy, music, juggling, and general fun-making galore at the Waldo Theatre on Thursday night.

There will be two complete performances of the entire show, which also features a Western film, Hands Across The Rockies. The first show will begin at 7 p. m. and the second at 9. No seats will be reserved, and there is positively no advance in admission prices.

Rockland Lions

Treated To Handsome Colored Pictures—A New Member Initiated

Beautiful colored pictures, shown by stereopticon, featured yesterday's meeting of the Rockland Lions Club. The man at the helm was a valued member of the Club, Henry A. Howard, who showed some especially attractive Maine coast scenes, including his boyhood home at Blue Hill, his Summer home at Crescent Beach, Glover Farm, Sennebec Pond and Spruce Head. The Autumnal pictures, to be shown this Winter in St. Petersburg, Fla., should prove that Henry is not exaggerating when he boasts to Floridians about the charms of Maine. Some very interesting and very pretty Florida scenes were also shown.

Mr. Howard was introduced by Wilbur Senter as Main street's oldest business man in point of years.

A special greeting was accorded to Rev. Ernest (Pard) Kenyon and Rev. Fr. William E. Berger of Camden—two very loyal Lions who have just returned from a month's vacation trip to Williamsburg, Va. Pard Kenyon is to tell his story to the Club at an early date, and will preside next Wednesday.

Charles Jellison was admitted to membership and duly initiated by Laurence J. Dandaneau after an informative talk on Lionism by Past King Lion Frank H. Ingraham. It was learned that Lions International has established 1938 new clubs in the last 1361 days, and now has a total of 4200 clubs, with an aggregate of 150,000 members. Lions International has the largest number of service clubs in the United States, and has organizations in eight countries.

J. N. Southard was added to the Lions' Sea Scout committee. One week from next Wednesday the club will be entertained by Red Jacket troop at its headquarters.

Alex. Christie of Vinalhaven, Rev. Fr. William E. Berger of Camden and County Attorney Stuart C. Burgess were guests yesterday.

Church News

Despite the heavy downpour Monday night 15 young people made their way to the parsonage where a Halloween party had been planned for them. The rooms were decorated with black jack-o-lanterns. Much interest was manifested in the games, some of which were entirely new to many. Popcorn, candy and apples were served. Miss Eva Johnson assisted by Mrs. Ellen K. Nelson served hot chocolate, sandwiches and cake.

Miss Johnson briefly explained the value of a young peoples' organization in the church and asked if any were interested in such. Several indicated favoring such organization and Nov. 5 was decided upon as the date for such a meeting. The group will meet in the church at 7:30 and it is hoped that all the young people from this as well as from nearby communities will be present.

Those attending the party were Misses Arlene Nelson, Helen and Dorothy Johnson, Hilda and Sylvia Korpinen, Dagmar and Lilly Peterson, Elaine Ristein, Eleanor Nelson and Edna Ranta; the messers, Waino Nelson, Douglas Merrill, Maurice Torpacka, Arthur Anderson, Winfred Williams, and Rev. Samuel Nevala. Mrs. Ellen K. Nelson and Miss Eva Johnson acted as hostess.

Autumn Flower Show

America's Most Gorgeous Chrysanthemum To Be Seen In Boston Next Week

America's most gorgeous chrysanthemums are being assembled at Horticultural Hall Boston, for the 40th annual autumn show of the Chrysanthemum Society of America being held in cooperation with the 112th annual Autumn Flower Show of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society. The show opens on Thursday, Nov. 6, and closes Sunday night, Nov. 9.

Under the direction of Arno H. Nehrling, exhibition manager, 138 classes have been arranged in the chrysanthemum competitions. In addition to these classes, there will be brilliant chrysanthemum gardens, real plantings where the favorite flower of Autumn will be massed among shrubbery and bordered by shaven lawns and sleeping pools in which the many colors of the blossoms will be mirrored. The feature display of the entire show will be an Oriental temple garden in which terraces bright with chrysanthemums and flanked by stone lanterns will lead to a mammoth statue of Buddha.

Although the greatest fall exhibition held in Boston for many years, will be primarily devoted to chrysanthemums, there will also be masses of orchids and drifts of Winter-flowering house plants as well as begonias and gourds while an entire hall will be devoted to Christmas wreaths and other Christmas decorations staged under the direction of the New England Wild Flower Preservation Society.

Those attending the party were Misses Arlene Nelson, Helen and Dorothy Johnson, Hilda and Sylvia Korpinen, Dagmar and Lilly Peterson, Elaine Ristein, Eleanor Nelson and Edna Ranta; the messers, Waino Nelson, Douglas Merrill, Maurice Torpacka, Arthur Anderson, Winfred Williams, and Rev. About 200 people attended the annual Fall prom and reception to members of the Maine Nautical Training School Friday evening. The affair was sponsored by the members of the Student Senate, with Vice Principal Jasper P. Crouse as faculty adviser.

School is to be closed today and Friday while members of the Faculty attend the annual meeting of the M.T.A. in Bangor.

The plan for cadet teaching in the public schools in Rockland by members of the senior class is to be renewed this year. Marie Libby, of Lynn, Mass., and Eleanor Merrieth, of Stockton Springs, will begin service next week for a four week period.

Misses Elizabeth Sanborn and Patricia Walker, teacher in Lincoln, Mass., were guests on campus this week-end.

Misses Margaret Rogers and Agnes Morrison, teachers in Bar Harbor, attended the Prom.

Mr. and Mrs. Horatio C. Cowan of Taibot avenue are spending several days in New York.

Miss Beatrice Folsom is on a week's vacation from the Old Age Assistance Office.

The Catholic Women's Club will hold a short business meeting before the social tonight at 7.30 in the basement of the church.

WINSOR-COOLBROTH WEDDING

—By Staff Photographer.
Mrs. George S. Winsor (Jennie Coolbroth) married at Tenant's Harbor Baptist Church yesterday.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Tenant's Harbor Baptist Church, when Miss Jennie Coolbroth of Dorchester, Mass., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Coolbroth, of Tenant's Harbor, was married to George S. Winsor of Dorchester, Mass.

The bride wore a white satin gown, with lace inserts, and a circular train with a Sweetheart tulle veil fingertip length with a wreath of orange blossoms, and white satin slippers. She carried an ivory covered Bible with a white ribbon cascade caught with white snapdragons, a baby breath and sweet alyssum. Mrs. Coolbroth, mother of the bride, wore a solid blue dress with a yellow corsage.

The vestry was decorated with evergreen and the couple received in an archway of white with evergreen and red berries.

The wedding party consisted of Mrs. Grace Wilson, matron of honor, and sister of the bride, who wore rust taffeta and carried an aqua muff with snapdragon and Fall chrysanthemums and cascade ribbons of gold satin. Miss Arleen B. Coolbroth and Mrs. Lillian Cold, both of Tenant's Harbor, were bridesmaids, wearing aqua taffeta and carrying rust muffs with Fall chrysanthemums and cascade ribbons. The flower girl was a niece of the bride, Miss Maylyn Richardson, who wore rust and carried a basket of pansies and gold ribbons.

The single ring ceremony was used by Rev. Byrd Springer, pastor of the Tenant's Harbor Baptist Church.

Following the ceremony before the altar which was decorated in evergreen, the bride party retired to the vestry where a reception was held and refreshments were served. Those who assisted in serving were Mrs. Mary Moore of Warren, Miss Agnes Severlight, Mrs. Josephine Canary, Miss Nancy Watts all of Tenant's Harbor, and Mrs. Myrtle Raye of Wiley's Corner.

The bride cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Eleanor L. Richardson had charge of the guest book. All flower arrangements were the work of Mrs. C. V. Overman of Rockport.

Following a reception last evening in Boston, and a wedding trip, they will reside in North Weymouth, Mass., where Mr. Winsor is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Bridges of Swan's Island were in the city yesterday bound on a motor vacation trip of uncertain destination.

The Garden Club

Has a Happy Afternoon As Guest Of the Mt. Bette Nature Club

The Rockland Garden Club was entertained by the Mount Bette Nature Club at the home of Mrs. George W. Smith, Summer street Tuesday afternoon. About 40 members being present.

The president, Mrs. J. Albert Jameson, led the ladies in the National Club collect which is of such high order of thought and aspirations in prayer that it is recorded for the benefit and understanding of all who read—"Let us O God, look to the tree and the flower for the beauty and serenity of orderly living. As each in its season, depending wholly upon Thee for development, arrives at perfection, so may each of us in simplicity and trust, work out the divine pattern of her being. And help us to achieve in living O God, the same harmony and loveliness that we strive for in gardening, exemplifying in both the beauty of holiness."

The club secretary, Mrs. Ida Dondis, read minutes of the last meeting, followed by a summary of plans for a Winter flower show to be given at Community Building Nov. 25 by the Rockland and Camden Garden clubs, combining efforts.

This report was ably handled by Mrs. Keryn ap Rice and much interest was felt in this project of Winter beauty. The president announced a regional meeting with the Belfast Garden Club for Nov. 4. Announcement was made of honors from this club being conferred on the "Esso Pilling Station" for neatness order and best dressed, in the judgment of the award committee.

At this time the president turned the afternoon's program over to the Mount Bette Nature Club for the remainder of the time. Mrs. Gertrude Wooster, president of this club announced in her delightful style the following to take parts: Mrs. Elsa Sonntag, whose specialty for this meeting's talk was "Grasses," telling us that through the world had been tabulated 10,000 species of grasses. She had really marvelous examples of many kinds that she had gathered in this State giving a fascinating and charming paper with explanations of the differences between sedges, bull rushes and grasses in an effective style that held our close attention. Next Mrs. Maude Smith, at perfect poise, with a concise and brilliant story of "Hawks," what they live on and what they do not do that is, unworthy, bringing in the eagles in her fascinating story of the several varieties and their methods of life. Miss Caroline Jameson spoke on "Astronomy" and what our heavens have to offer us simply for the looking, telling us it was once thought stars were the sprinkling system of the skies and through them came our rainfall. She also spoke of the discoverer of our marvelous solar system according to Sir Isaac Newton the distinction of being the greatest benefactor in science of the ages. She was charming, and showed deep study and clear understanding of her subject.

The last speaker was Mrs. Eva Heller who gave a talk on "Birds" and we could almost hear them sing, she was so at home with her subject. She said the club members this season had seen in and near Rockland 125 varieties or species. She spoke of land birds and water birds with a studied familiarity that was delightful.

After this excellent story period of nature study and its rare and inspiring pleasures we were invited to partake of delicious refreshments of cakes and punch. Then a social hour was enjoyed, voting this one of the finest, most educational meetings yet experienced by the Rockland Garden Club.

Silver Wedding Anniversary

A delightful surprise party was arranged for Capt. and Mrs. Lew Wallace last Tuesday night by Mrs. Wallace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morton. The occasion was in honor of Capt. and Mrs. Wallace's 25th wedding anniversary which was the 23d and on which date the couple went on a trip, the destination not divulged.

The guests were old schoolmates, relatives and neighbors of the couple who presented gifts of silver, money and flowers. Mrs. Wallace received 40 American Beauty roses, 25 of them from Capt. Wallace who also presented to her a beautiful raccoon coat and a silver carving set.

There were gifts from the crew of the Iva M. and many others who were not present. Refreshments were served, including wedding cake.

Parts of the Bible have been translated into 30 languages by missionaries.

Mrs. Vance Norton and son Vance, Jr., in company with Mrs. Norton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Estes of Newport went this morning to spend the remainder of the week in Boston, where they will visit Miss Geraldine Norton, a student at Burdett College.

Charles Cuthbertson has returned from a few days' visit in Dorchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Brewer of Providence are at their home here.

Scout Leaders Club

"We Must Get Down To Business," Furtwengler Tells the Boys

The Scout Leaders Club met Friday night at the home of Horatio Cowan. These present were Harold Whitehill, Scoutmaster Troop 202; Leroy Brown, Scoutmaster Troop 203; Albert Mills, Scoutmaster Troop 204; Carl Chaples and Anson Olds, representing Troop 206; J. A. Perry 1st mate of the Sea Scout Ship Red Jacket; Douglass Mills, assistant scoutmaster Troop 204; Willis Furtwengler, scout executive of this area.

Following a general discussion of local conditions and activities, Mr. Furtwengler gave a very serious and inspiring talk on the Scout's place and responsibility in the present line of National Defense. He said: "The time for fooling has passed; we must get down to business." As he outlined the Scout's place is to be in the service of Communication. Three things he pointed out were required for the scouts training. Signaling, first aid and pathfinding, especial stress being placed on signaling and pathfinding, which is knowing your own city and locality thoroughly.

Plans were made for the quick and efficient mobilizing of the various troops in case of any need which might arise. Scoutmasters Harold Whitehill and Albert Mills of troops 202 and 204 were appointed to act as senior officers should any emergency arise.

Refreshments were served by Mr.

Cowan at the close of the session. The next meeting of the club will be the third Friday in November, place of meeting to be announced later. Trucks now bear an average annual tax burden of $100 each.

Long Term, May

Superior Court Convicted Next Tuesday—"Christmas Tree Case" First

The November term of County Superior Court convenes next Tuesday and the presiding justice will be Edward P. Murphree of Bangor.

The Grand Jury, which entered upon its duties, will be one, and as usual will be impaneled for a service of three terms. County Attorney Stuart C. Burgess will present before it a considerable number of criminal matters. The jurors ordinarily do not report before Thursday, but as there is a naturalization case being tried this term, they will be impaneled Wednesday at 9:30 a. m.

While the criminal docket is not at "not heavy," quite a number of civil cases are said to be ready for trial, insuring a term possibly two full weeks.

Assigned for Wednesday is a trespass case of John Vespa against Conrad Pohjola, alias "rad North," both of Thomaston. Known as the Christmas tree suit, this suit was heard by the jury at the May term, this year, resulted in a verdict of $1654.40, the plaintiff. Motion for a trial was granted. Harding plaintiff; Grossman for the defendant.

Last Four Rounds

Tony Thomas Hit Substitution Lawless With Everything But Ring Posts

Johannie Lawless of Portland substituted in the main bout at the Park street arena last night for Buster Carroll who refused fight, giving McCloud only a few hours notice. Lawless did stand up under Tony's battle attack for the four rounds. The hit him with everything but ring posts before he put him in the fourth. For a little while looked as if Thomas had met a man who could take his punishment and keep coming in for more. Less got a few belts that rolled the colored boy proper, but did slow him down enough but what was still top man.

Stan Siviski after a string of blows and being repeatedly warned by Jack O'Brien was disqualified in the fourth and the match was to Bill Jordan on a TKO. The crowd did a workmanlike job of booing Siviski out of the ring, voiced their opinion that they as soon not have him again.

Al Wooster found a suitable opponent in Frenchy Fournier of Waterville. He was able to give decision over him and not hurt, to speak of. Fournier was viciously a new hand at the game.

Joe Durfee of Boothbay Harbor, a newcomer, and a rugged fighter chased Nap James around the ring for four rounds, and having better wind, wasn't puffing as James at the end of the fourth and got the nod from the judges.

Thomas is scheduled to fight Nadeau of Berlin, N. H. here next week in the main bout.
